gress of the United States. Passed at the second session, which was begun and held at the City of Washington, in the District of Columbia, on Monday, the third day of December,

A. D. 1890, and and did Blond by the fourth day General Land and Collecting Convention between the United States of America and the King of Sweden and Norway & Couclided at Washington, March 21, 1860. Ratifications exchanged at Real Estate, Payment of Taxes, Collection Washington, December 20, 1860. Proclaimed by the President of the United States, December 21, 1860. 👉 BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

OF AMERICA: \, A PROCEAUATION. Whereas a Convention between the U. S., of America and his Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, for the surrender of criminals, fugitives from justice, in certain cases, was concluded and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries at Washington, on the 21st day of March last, which Convention, being in the Huglish and Swedish languages, is word for word as follows:

Convention for the surrender of criminals, fugitives from justice, in certain cases, concluded between the U. S., and his Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway.

Whereas, it is found expedient, for the better administration of justice and the prerention of crime within the territories and jurisdiction of the parties respectively, that persons committing certain crimes, being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up; and also to connerate such crimes explicitly; the U. S., of America on the one part. and his Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway on the other part, having resolved to treat on this subject, have for that purpose appointed their respective plenipotentiaries to negotiate and conclude a convention, that is to say: The President of the U. S. of America, Lewis Cass, Secretary of State of the U. S., and his Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, Baron Nicholas William de Wetterstedt, Knight of the Orders of the Polar Star and of St Olaff, Commander of the Order of Dannebrog of Denmark, his said Majesty's Minister Resident near the Government of the U. S., who, after reciprocal communication of their respective powers, have agreed to and signed the following articles: Ar. 1. It is agreed that the high contracting parties shall, upon mutual requisitions by them, their diplomatic or consular agents, respectively inder deliver up to justice all persons who, being charged with or condemned for any of the crimes enumcrated in the following article. committed within the jurisdiction of either party, shall seck an asylum or shall be found within the territories of the other: Provided, That this surrender, and delivery shall not be obligatory, on either of the high contracting parties except upon presentation by the judicial declaration or sentence establishing the colpability of the fogitive, and issued by the proper authority of the government who claims the aurrender, in case property.

Appleton, Wie., May 27, 1861. been pronounced: said document to be drawn up and certified according to the forms prescribed by the laws of the country making the demand. But if such sentence or declaration shall not have been pronounced, then the surrender may be demanded, and shall be made, when the demanding party shall have turnished such proof of culpability as would have been sufficient to justify the apprehension and commitment for trial of the accused if the offence had been committed in the country where he shall have taken refuge.

Ar. II. Persons shall be so delivered up who shall have been charged with or sentenced for any of the following crimes, to wit: Murder, (including assassination, N W 2 patricide, infanticide, and phisoning, or attempt to commit murder; rape; piracy, (including mutiny on board a ship, whenever. the crew or part thereof, by fraud or violence against the commander, have taken possession of the vessel;) arson; robbery Lots 1 2 3 4 and burglary; forgery, and the fabrication or circulation of counterfeit money, whether coin or paper money; embezzlement by public officers, including appropriation of Abaut 1900 acros at from $4 to $6 per acro. public funds.

Ar. III. The expenses of any detention and delievery, effected in virtue of the preceding provisions, shall be borne and defrayed by the party who makes the re. NEV quisition and receives the fugitive. Ar. IV. Neither of the contracting parties shall be bound to deliver up, under the stipulations of this convention, any person who, according to the laws of the country where he shall be found, is a citizen or a subject of the same at the time his surrender is demanded.

convention shall not be applied to any crime or offence of a political character. Ar. VI. Whenever any person, accused of any of the crimes enumerated in this About 1200 acres at two to four dollars per acro. convention, shall have committed a new hattland and new act 20 20 22 18 crime in the territories of the State where he has sought an asylum, or shall be found, such person shall not be delicyered up under the stipulations of this convention until he shall have been tried, and shall have ro crime, or shall have been acquitted thereof. Ar. VII. This convention shall not take effect until ten days after its publica ion, made according to the laws of the Ekney **spective governments. It thall remain in force until the end of

ix months after either of the high contracting parties shall have given notice to NKnwk the other of its intention to terminate the
